

Train-The-Trainer Application

Instructions:

Thank you for your interest in the 2020 Investment Readiness and Impact Management Train-the-Trainer Programme! The following application is targeted at incubators, accelerators, and service providers interesting in a Train-The-Trainer programme on Investment Readiness and/or Impact Management. It consists of 5 short sections. We expect that it will take you around 30 minutes to fill out completely. Do try to dedicate the necessary time to this process. This provides us with valuable information about your organisation. It also provides you with an opportunity to give us a better idea of how we can best support you. You can find a copy of the questions here on the B-Briddhi: Scaling Impact Enterprises of Bangladesh programme website; it may be helpful to fill out your answers there first and then copy them into the online form. You must fill out this form in one sitting - progress will not be saved if you leave the page. If you encounter problems or have questions, please email info@sie-b.org or consult our FAQ.

23. Please describe for us the structure and content of the training in 150 words or less.

Example: During this 45-day accelerator programme, we work with high-potential enterprises in a variety of sectors to connect them to direct investment. During the programme itself, we help them develop their business management capacity link them to markets, and develop their product. The programme culminates in a demo day for interested local, regional, and international investors.

Impact management

24. How many cohorts of this programme do you offer a year?
25. On average, how many enterprises take part in each cohort?
26. Please describe the structure and content of the training in 150 words or less.
Example: During our three-month programme, we work with early-stage enterprises to help them develop a theory of change (TOC), design and implement an impact tracking system that collects information on relevant impact metrics, and, finally, come up with an impact report that allows them to communicate their successes externally as well as understand and appropriately modify their processes internally to better serve their customers.
27. Which impact management framework or frameworks do you include in your programme?
 - Impact Management Programme
 - IRIS
 - SDGs
 - SROI
 - DCED's Results Management framework
 - IFC Impact Management Principles
 - BCTA
 - WBCSD – Measuring Impact Frameworks
 - Other

Impact Tracking:

We will now ask you some questions about how you measure and manage the impact of your work.

28. Please describe, in 150 words or less, how you measure the success of your programme and how you use this information to modify your offerings.
Example: Currently, we collect information on cohort members' self-assessment of their confidence and knowledge in three key areas; we compare this with a self-assessment of the same topics immediately after the programme. At the 1-year and 18-month marks, we follow up to see if they have secured any new investment and also to ask for a self-assessment of how relevant the information they learned and the skills they gained through our programme have been since they graduated the programme.
29. Do you use any KPIs for impact measurement and management? If so, please list them below here:
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
 - e.

30. Do you have information on how many enterprises in last year's cohort were:
- f. Women-owned?
 - g. Primarily serving women?
 - h. Gender parity with regards to team composition?

You're almost there! Just one more section to go and you'll be ready to submit.

Needs and expectations:

Finally, we would like to ask you about your needs and expectations for this programme.

31. Reflecting on your experience working with entrepreneurs in the past two years and where you intend to go with your programme...
- a. ...where would you say you need the most support?
 - b. ...what do you hope to get out of the programme and how will it help you change, improve, or expand your programme in line with your future goals?
